Presentation at the American Corner Skopje

What a Good School Profile Looks Like with Gordana Mircic, Educational Advisor

November 10th, 2009

The school profile presentation was of utmost importance to state school students as almost all of them did not know what a school profile is and what information it should contain. The Educational Adviser Gordana Mircic, showed the students the College Board sample that the schools might choose to use as their template. Besides this one they had the chance to look at the school profile of an American high school and a state high school here in Macedonia and compare the two. The differences between the two were discussed in detail. Everyone present also received a handout with hints admission officers recommend when it comes to school profiles.
